'WORK AS A TEAM TO GET THE BEST RESULTS'

Sisters Sara, 29 (left), and Annie Birman, 25, from north London, have run the fashion brand Sara Birman together for two years. Their collections can be found in shops such as Harvey Nichols and Selfridges.

"We were apprehensive about working together, but now we wouldn't swap it for anything. Working ideas off each other is great, but it's still a bit of a kiss, kiss, like just with the UK Fashion Export Award for Designer brand of the Year, but won't tell on our family. We wear our clothes to continue to excite people, and work hard together."
