

100BESTDRESSED

What item in your wardrobe brings back the happiest memories? My sparkly shoes – many happy hours of dancing.

SARA BERMAN FASHION DESIGNER

What shop can you not live without? Victoria's Secret in NYC for vests. I buy white, black and grey in bulk. Not glam, but essential. Where do you go to buy your accessories? Olivia Morris for shoes, and Amy Morris for bags (they're not related).

Who do you shop with? My mum and my sister. But I am less of a "shopper" and more of a "consistent consumer".

Which item in your wardrobe tells the most enchanting story? My print silk Forties tea dress. My husband found it, and bought it because he thought the print was so me.

Tilly Baines

Sophie Ellis Bexter

Sara Berman

Cony Bates

Where do you go to buy your accessories? New York, for Nicola feathered cuffs.

What has been your most inexpensive fashion find? Lavender essential oil to protect clothes from moths.

Who do you shop with? My boyfriend – only because he says I look pretty.

Which item in your wardrobe tells the most enchanting story? An Edwardian frock coat that belonged to an Italian princess. Every time I wear it, I feel like I'm sharing a secret!

SOPHIE ELLIS BEXTER POP SINGER

What has been your most inexpensive fashion find? A Seventies sparkly red frock for £7, and a gorgeous suede fitted coat for 40p.

How do you tackle red-carpet dressing? Just go for it! So many women see dresses they want and think, "Oh, I've nowhere to wear that". I'm lucky enough to have the excuse!
